Little Edward is well – has cut 6 or 7 teeth since we came to Wrentham. – My own health is not good – my lungs are now in rather bad state so much good on earth— & have we not reason to believe that many a poor slave at the great day of account will appear as gems in his crown of rejoicing. And dear Mother, how trifling will the sacrifice (which you & I are called upon to make by being separated from him) appear to us then.— The time has come dear Mother, when we must make sacrifices, if we would do our whole duty— when we must take more enlarged & extended views of duty— & how much we owe to the perishing millions that are setting in darkness— & know not the way to Heaven.— We must not live unto ourselves— but unto Him who has died for us— & if he calls upon us to make sacrifices, we must make them cheerfully— if he bids us to go to another part of his vineyard, we must go when & where he directs— & be willing to do any thing or do any thing that he requires.—

You speak of the trial of being separated from your child— I know it must be trying— & it is a sacrifice of feeling to me, thus to be separated from my dear husband— in my feeble state of health— for he is indeed dear to me,— but then I feel that God has a higher claim than I have upon him— & when he called upon him to go, dear as he is, I could not object.— It is indeed a sacrifice, but I make it dear Mother in behalf of 2,000,000 of slaves, who as I said before, are worse than the heathen.— I believe that his labours will be blessed.—

Miss Elizabeth Harrington, I heard this week, is sick unto death with the consumption— She is with her Uncle Isaac— in Framingham.—

Emily Fitch is married to Dr Dalton— Mr Phelps took tea with us last evening— Mr Dalton, Martha, Harriet & all send love— Affectionate daughter to myself - & can be alone when I please - We have every attention in sickness & health, that we could wish - ride frequently - which little E enjoys much - I went to Farmton last week with Grandfather & Aunt Dance - It is nearly 2 years since I was there - & as you know great changes have taken place - Grandpa who is 88 yrs old bore the journey very well - & guided the horse as well as any young person. - There has been quite a revival there - & there is still an interesting State of feeling - So you see that I have been here & there & what with getting ready to go &c my time has been occupied since I have ascertained what course Mr Phelps would pursue this Summer which was week before last, when I met him at Boston - He told me then that it was decided that he should labour in the New England States this Summer which you will be glad to hear - It is his calculation when we leave here next Friday - to go to Worcester - & spend the Sabbath - thence to Lee (Mass) & thence by the way of Amherst, Farmington to see you - & from there to Norwich - ~~He~~ ~~to~~ ~~He~~ The cause in which he is engaged is rapidly advancing - His whole heart is in the work - And my dear Mother it is indeed a noble enterprise - & a privilege to be thus employed - in behalf of the suffering & oppressed - who are far worse off than the heathen - O, how ought we to pray & labour for them - till they are set free from their temporal & spiritual bondage -

O what a privileged woman, my dear Mother, you are, to have a Son who is thus willing to consecrate himself - Will it not be a matter of rejoicing through eternity - that he was instrumental of accomplishing

My dear Mother,

I received a letter from you this morning by mail — & was glad to hear from you again. I should have answered the one I received a few weeks ago before this — but I wanted in the first place to know more decidedly, where Mr Phelps would go after he returned from Baltimore — for I thought you would wish to know & I would wait till I could tell you. I expected he would come directly to Wrentham from Philadelphia, after the anniversaries there — & he expected to do so till he arrived at New York — when he found that it was necessary for him to go to Boston by the way of New-Haven. He then wrote me to meet him at Boston the week of the anniversaries there — So I went, & he returned to Wrentham with me — & left here last week on Wednesday. He went from here to Concord — & to day I received a line from him dated at Salem — he will labor in that region till next week — I expect him here on Thursday — & will probably leave again on Friday — & I think now that I shall go with him — as my health is quite feeble. The journey that I took last year to Connecticut was so beneficial to my health. I have concluded to take another — but I shall not be able to carry little Edward so far as we shall go — of course shall leave him with Mother & Sister Emily &c — they will take good care of him & he is very happy & contented with them — His Grandfather is very much attached to him & the attachment is mutual — He feels quite at home here & enjoys himself very much — Mr Fisk seems glad to have us here — & we get along very well — I have the parlour chamber Little Edward is well — has not had a cold since we came — & grows finely. He is out of doors much of the time — & runs about the yard &
